With regard to claim 1, Mukherjee discloses a method for producing a multi-layer text (which reads on establishing versions of data) (col 1, lines 7-11), comprising (a) providing a text (master item file 14, col 4, lines 20-23); (b) selecting a text segment (which reads on engineering change affected item file 16) (col 4, lines 20-23); (c) assigning value of a text dimension to said text segment (which reads on item related data) (col 5, lines 7-41); repeating steps (b) and (c) as many times as desired (which reads on creating engineering change notices) (col 4, lines 24-47).

Application/Control Number: 09/529,348

Art Unit: 2622

With regard to claim 3, Mukherjee also discloses the step of displaying said multilayer text, such that different values of a text dimension are displayed in unique manner (which reads on creating engineering change notices) (col 4, lines 24-47).

With regard to claim 6, Mukherjee discloses for use with a multi-layer text, the multi-level text having text segments assigned with values of text dimensions (which reads on item related data) (col 5, lines 7-41); a method for displaying a text of interest (col 9, lines 22-39), comprising: providing at least one input value, or input value range, of at least one dimension (col 9, lines 22-39); and (b) retrieving and displaying text segments having assigned thereto, value that meets said input value, or input value range (col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).

With regard to claim 8, Mukherjee also discloses said retrieval includes displaying a requested value, or value range of a dimension of a text segment (col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).

With regard to claim 9, Mukherjee also discloses said retrieval includes displaying text changes according to different values of the same dimension (col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).

With regard to claim 10, Mukherjee also discloses said retrieval includes a complete visual display (Figure 11; col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).

With regard to claim 11, Mukherjee discloses a system that includes display unit (Figure 11) for producing multi-layer text (which reads on establishing versions of data) (col 1, lines 7-11), comprising: (i) selector for selecting a text segment in said text (which reads on engineering change affected item file 16) (col 4, lines 20-23); (ii) assignor for assigning a value of a dimension to said text segment (which reads on item related data) (col 5, lines 7-41); and (iii) memory (DASD 40) for storing the multi-layer text (col 4, lines 20-24).

With regard to claim 13, Mukherjee also discloses said display device is capable of displaying said multi-layer text, such that different values of a text dimension are displayed in a unique manner (col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).

With regard to claim 16, Mukherjee discloses for use with a multi-layer text having text segments assigned with values of text dimensions (which reads on item related data) (col 5, lines 7-41), a system for displaying a text of interest (col 9, lines 22-39), comprising: (i) receiver for receiving at least one input value or input value range of at least one dimension (col 9, lines 22-39); and (ii) retriever for retrieving and displaying text segments having assigned thereto, value that meets said input value, or input value range (col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).

With regard to claim 18, Mukherjee also discloses wherein said retrieval includes displaying a requested value, or value range of a dimension of a text segment (col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).

With regard to claim 19, Mukherjee also discloses wherein said retrieval includes displaying text changes according different values of the same dimension (col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).

With regard to claim 20, Mukherjee also discloses wherein said retrieval includes a complete visual display (Figure 11; col 9, line 22 – col 10, line 37).
